WRIT PETITION NO. 15345 OF 2006

ORDER:

Heard the learned counsel.

The writ petition is filed for a Writ of Mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in orally not permitting the petitioner-company to participate in the auction being conducted on 24.7.2006 for the sale of land in an extent of Ac. 4.00, covered by plot Nos. 6 and 7 situate in Ijjat Nagar, Hitech City, Hyderabad without assigning any reasons and without giving any opportunity as illegal, unjust, arbitrary, discriminatory, violative of principles of natural justice and amounting to colourable exercise of power, apart from being violative of Articles 14,19(1)(g) and 300-A of the Constitution of India and consequentially set aside the action of the respondents and pass such other suitable orders.

It is stated that the auction itself had been postponed. The learned Standing Counsel also would submit that in the event of auction being held, liberty will be given to the petitioner also to participate provided if the 1st respondent is otherwise satisfied that the petitioner had satisfied the terms and conditions.

In view of the stand taken by the learned Standing Counsel, the same is recorded and the writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
